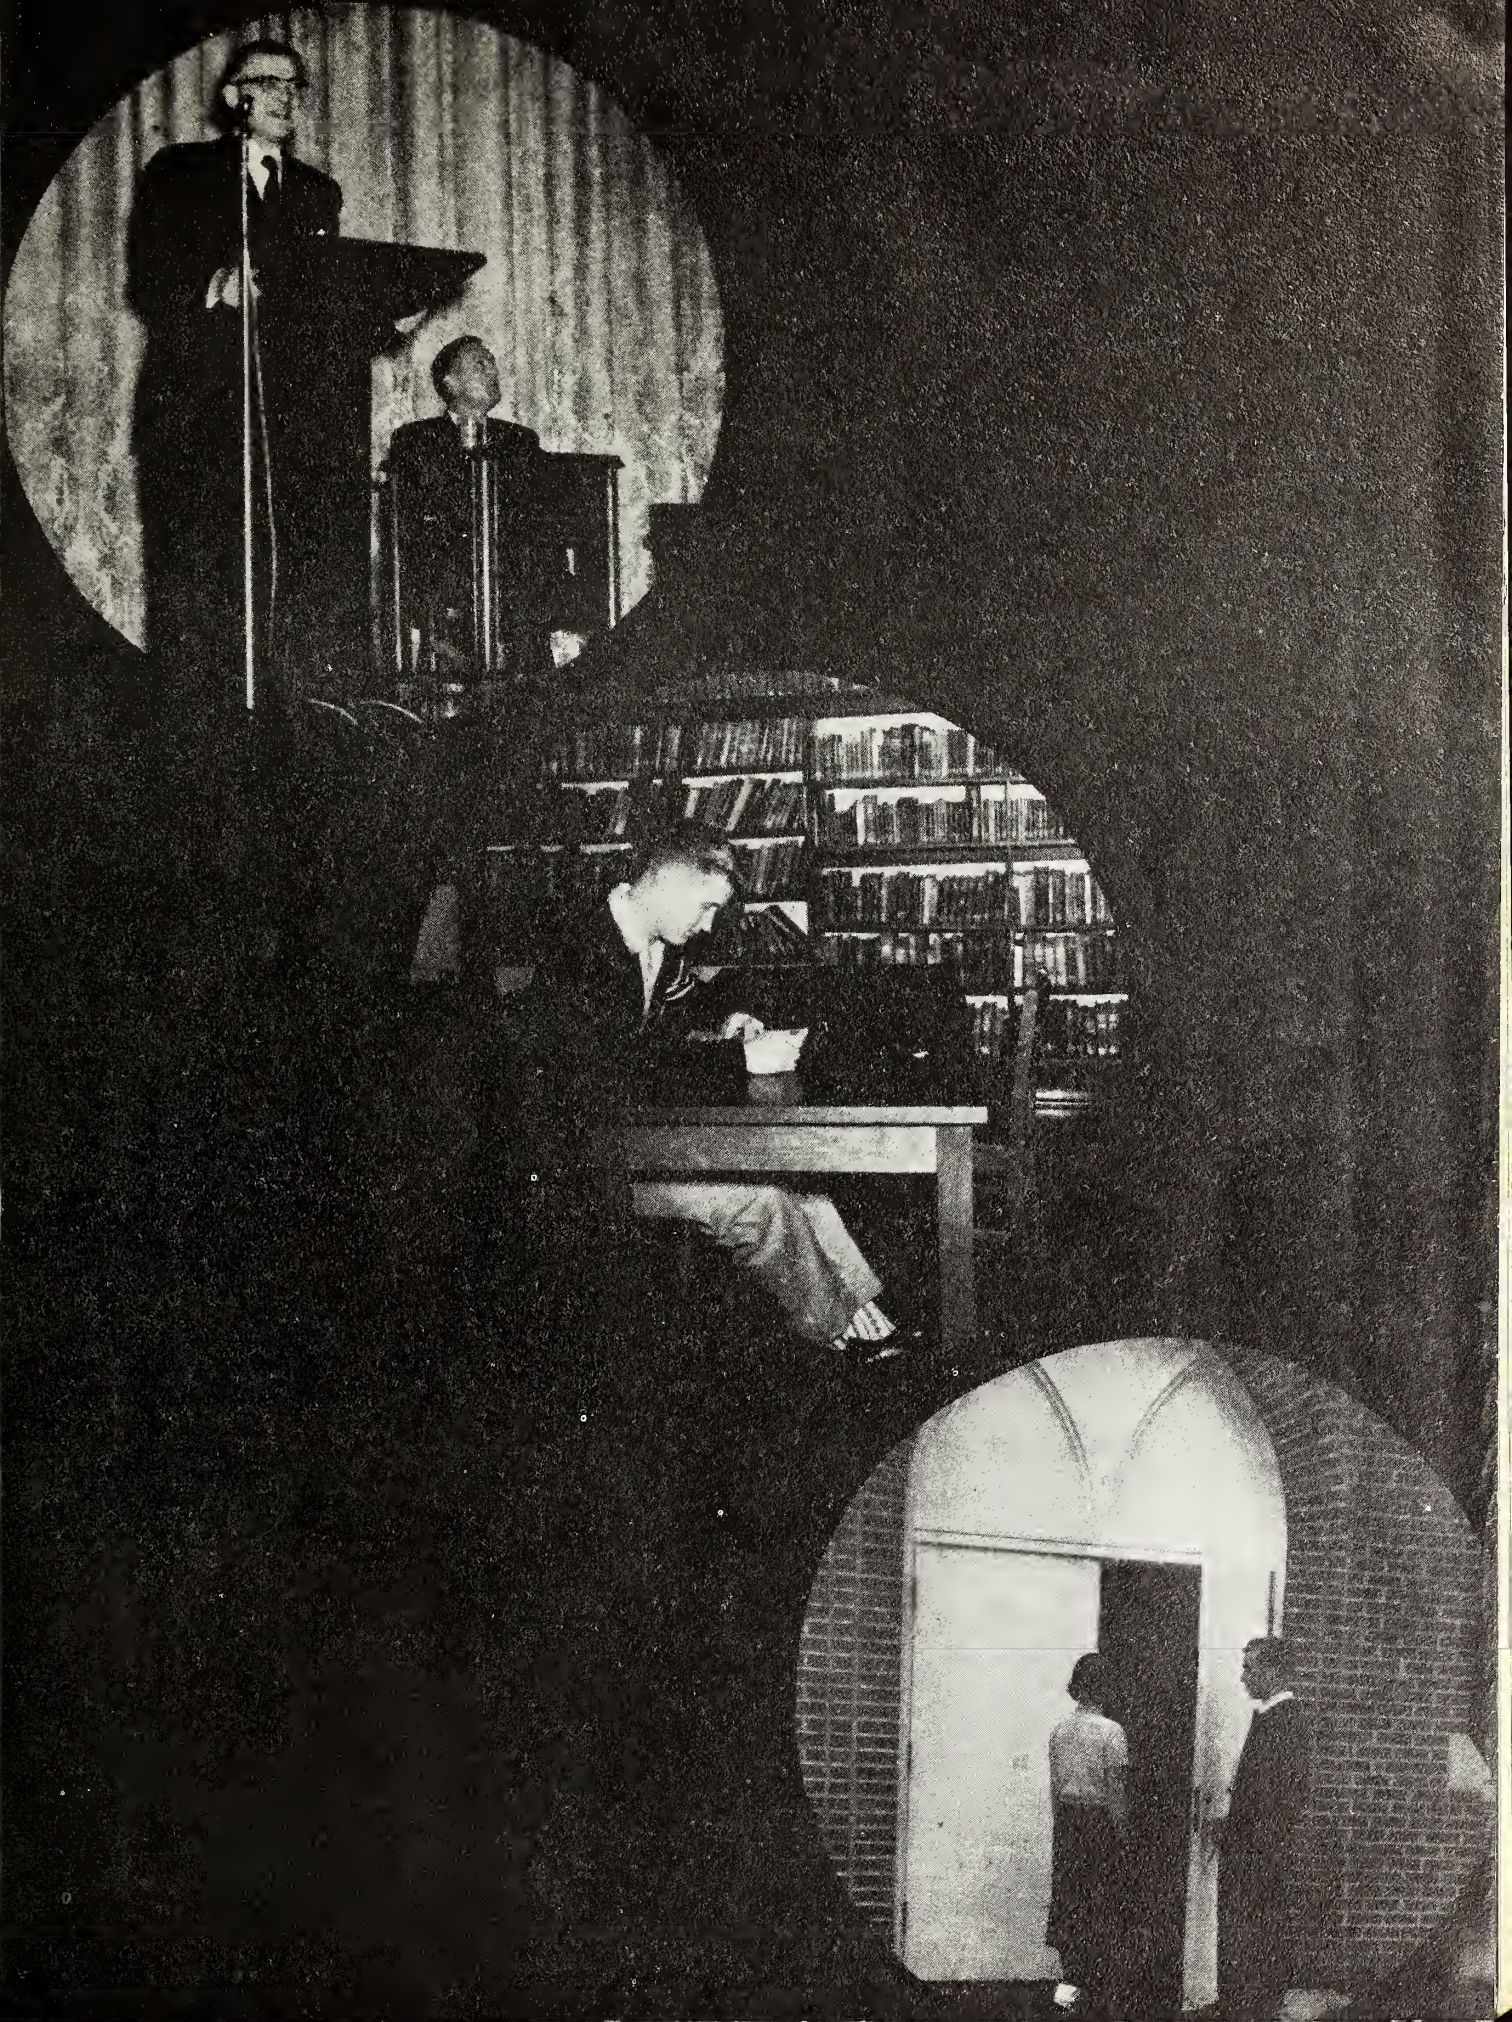
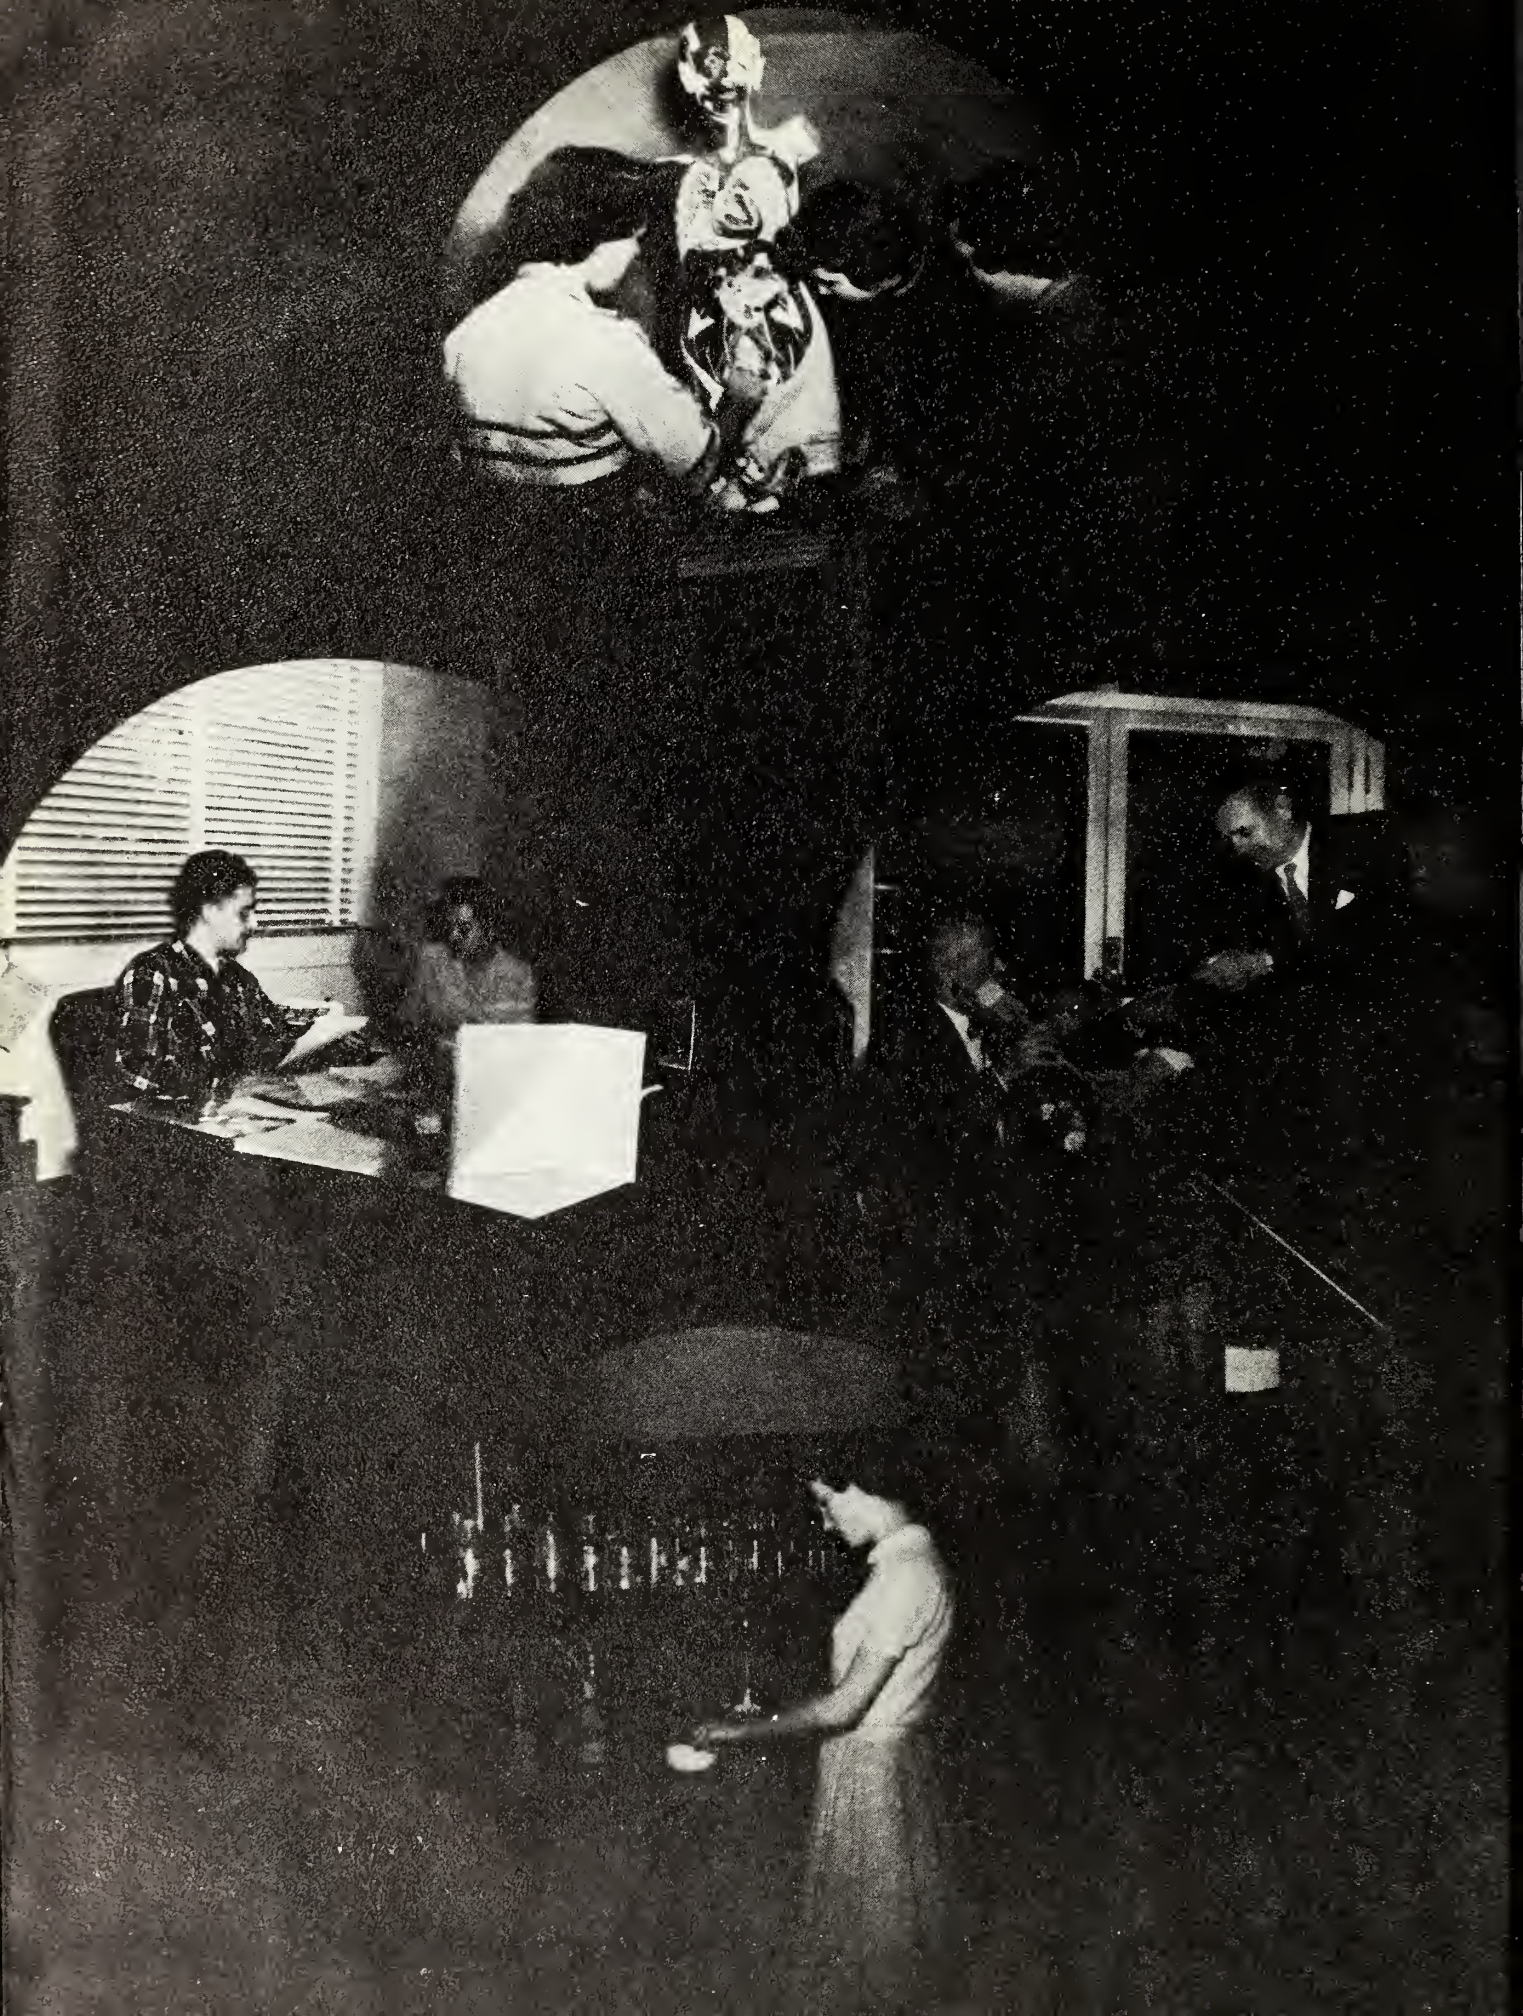
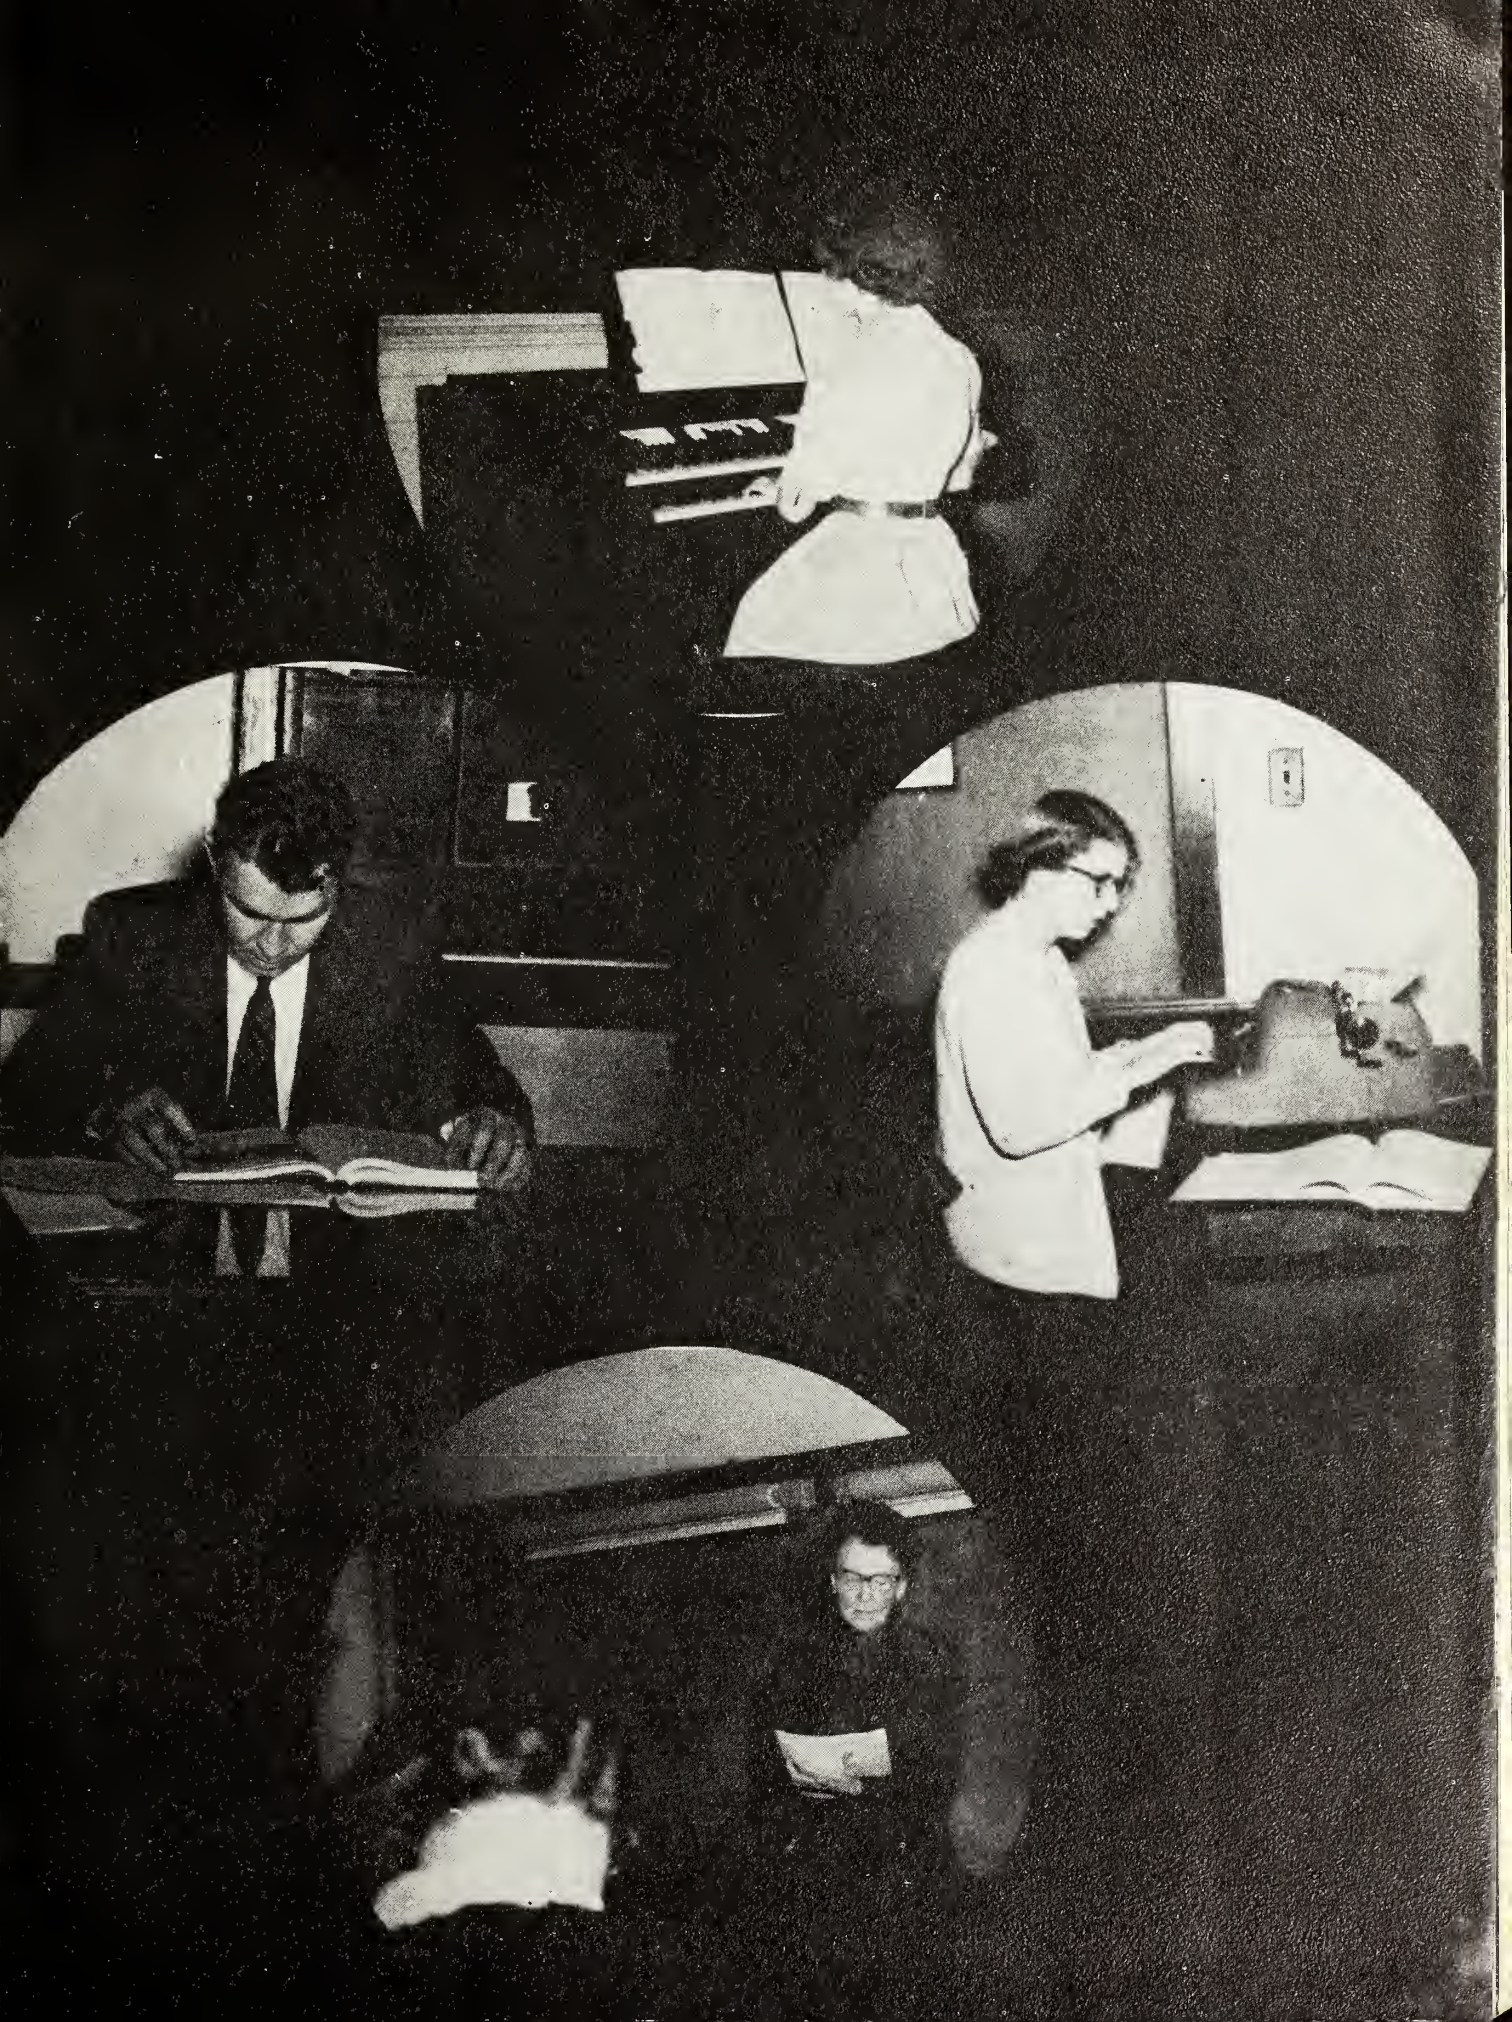
The WO-HE-LO lights the way for the future

Tomorrow to fresh fields and pastures new







Dedication

Seventeen years ago there came to E. C. J. C. a lad eager to learn and to live. Excelling both in scholastic work and in athletics, this young man continued his education and developed into one of the great schoolmen of Mississippi. He is one in whom the elements are so kindly mixed that all the world can say, "He is a Man."

Because of our deep appreciation of this man and of our desire to honor him, we dedicate this our 1953-54 WO-HE-LO to him, the new president of East Central Junior College—Mr. Arno Vincent.

Foreword

In compiling this volume of the WO-HE-LO, we have attempted to catch the spirit of the time and to hold it forever as a memory book of life as we lived it at East Central Junior College in 1953-54.

The theme of the book is the "Forward Look" and as you turn the pages may you find many wonderful things to remember

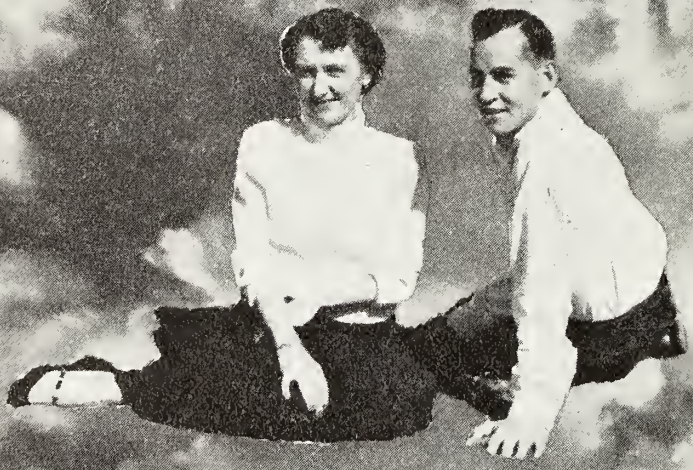
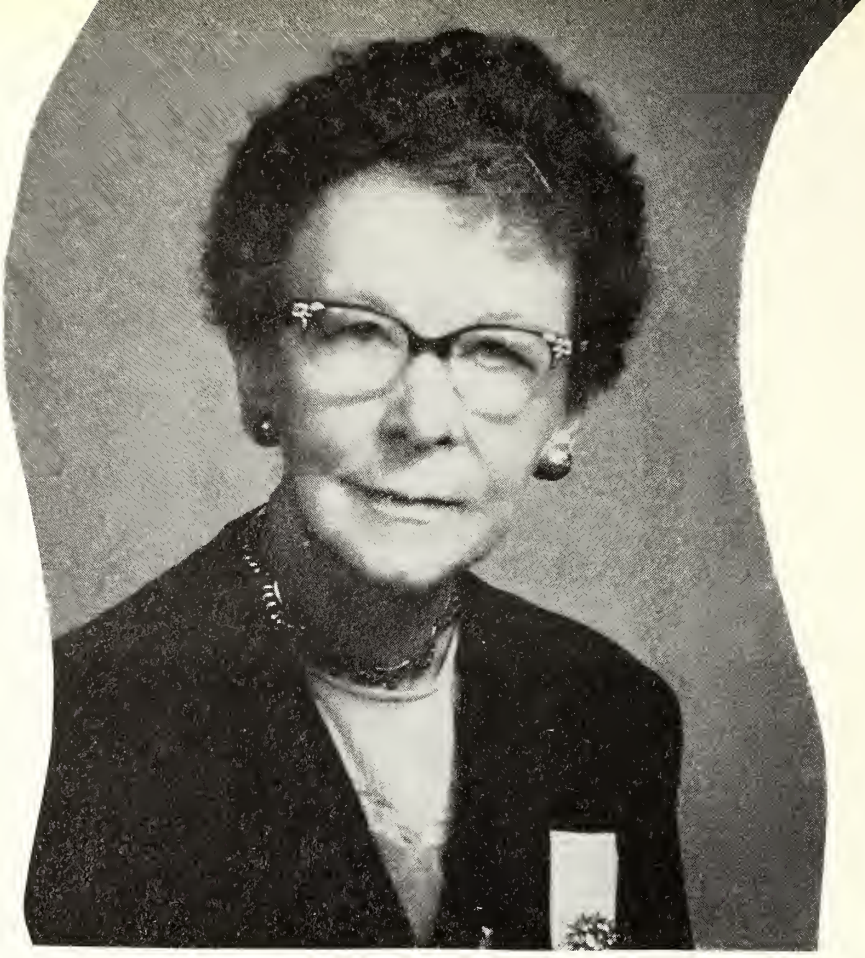
Features

We Hereby toast the future and Mr. and Miss F. C. J. C.



Miss Jimmie Dee Yarbrough

Mr. Ray Adcock



"Grow old along with me--the best is yet to be".

This has been a wonderful year and to you who have come this way and tarried awhile, contributing your bit of beauty, love, and service, let me say that the game of life is up to you. Strive for the beautiful, the good, the true, knowing always that the beauty of the soul outshines the beauty of face and form.

Speak softly; let no harsh word mar the good we may do here. If you can stop one heart from breaking, then you will not live in vain. No day will ever fail you. Before the darkest day has gone, some late purple bloom or some line of crimson sun will shine through and bring you beauty if you only have eyes to see.

Think noble thoughts, remembering that as you think in your heart, so you are. Be calm in your souls. Wait, thou child of hope for life will teach you all things.

And now abideth faith, hope, and love, but the greatest of these is love.
